

GRAND ROUNDS

Wednesday

September 16, 2009

12 - 1 p.m. • 1 Hour/Credit CME

University of North Texas Health Science Center at Fort Worth
Office of Professional and Continuing Education

Title:

New Insights in the Clinical Treatment of Childhood Obesity

Presenter:

Maria Fisher, MD, FAAP

Director
Fisher and Fisher Fitness & Medical Clinic
Arlington, Texas

Nothing to disclose.

Objectives:

Those attending this presentation will receive information that should allow them to:

- Assist patients in overcoming treatment barriers to healthy weight;
- Identify health risks with overweight/obesity; and
- Work with patients to encourage a healthy weight and lifestyle.

Location:

University of North Texas Health Science Center at Fort Worth
LIB-110 (Mini-Auditorium)
3500 Camp Bowie Boulevard
Fort Worth, Texas 76107

Support:

This activity is made possible with support from the
UNT Health Science Center Department of Pediatrics.

Physician Accreditation Statements:

UNT Health Science Center is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) to award continuing medical education to physicians.

The University of North Texas Health Science Center is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to sponsor continuing medical education for physicians.

Physician Credit Designation:

UNT Health Science Center anticipates this program being approved for 1 hour of AOA Category IA CME pending approval by the AOA CCME.

The University of North Texas Health Science Center at Fort Worth designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

For more information about these or other activities sponsored by the Office of Professional and Continuing Education, please call (817) 735-2539 or visit www.hsc.unt.edu.
Each activity sponsored by PACE is supported by Dallas Southwest Osteopathic Physicians.